John A. Crookshank Elementary to Veterans: “WE THANK YOU FOR YOUR SERVICE!”

November 9, 2018, 9:00 A.M. “The heroes are coming!” Crookshank’s 830 students and staff are cheering and waving flags and cheering some more! They are cheering for REAL LIFE HEROES: 40 veterans and active military who may have served in WWII, Korean War, Vietnam, Desert Storm, Afghanistan, and Iraq! National Guard and Merchant Marines are also represented!!! Many veterans are dads, moms, uncles, aunts, grandfathers, and friends of our students!

Inside our main hallway, a Veterans Wall of Honor was created with certificates filled out by our students and staff to honor the veterans they know.

John A. Crookshank Elementary was glad to make these experiences available to honor our veterans and to give our students the opportunity to value and appreciate our country, our flag, and our veterans. Many thanks to all who attended our Veterans Day Celebration!

“In class today, we shared this news article. It is about a new book that was recently published. The book is called "P is for Pterodactyl: The Worst Alphabet Book Ever."

This book would a fantastic way of sharing funny words and silent beginning letters.”
