

It's Friday Night...Do You Know Where Your Children Are (Online)?

Social Media Awareness Workshop for Parents Only!

Date: Thursday, April 22, 2021
Time: 7:00—8:00pm
Location: Virtually Via Zoom (link to be sent on 4/21 to RSVP list)
RSVP: To Susan.Connor@stjohns.k12.fl.us by April 19

Who Should Attend?

Any parent who wants to learn more about the ever-changing social media platforms in use today, and what steps you can take to ensure your child's safety online.

Why Should Parents Attend?

Knowledge is Power! This session will cover:

- Statistics & Case Studies on Cyber-Bullying
- Current programs/apps used by adolescents online
- Terminology (phrases, trends, verbiage for the online communicator)
- Locating apps on phones/ipads/computers
- Laws (State Statutes) that apply to cyber-bullying
- Methods of bullying online
- The struggle between the schools and the parents when it comes to social media
- Social Media websites – why are they dangerous?
- How parents can track their children online
- Technology used to monitor devices
- Legal ramifications for parents AND adolescents
- Resources for parents and their children

Presented By:
Susan Wind, Founder
Parents kNOwMORE

Susan Wind is a college professor who has taught, designed and implemented Criminal Justice Courses throughout the US for the past 15 years. As a consultant for financial institutions, she provides training on cyber-crimes and security topics (i.e., money laundering, identity theft, fraud, etc.). For the past four years, she has been conducting research and offering programs to local businesses and nonprofits on cyber-bullying and social media awareness. Susan has published numerous articles on this topic and has developed curriculum for schools to implement in their training programs. For more information, visit www.parentsknowmore.com

This event is being presented by the SJCS District Department of Accountability and Intervention Services.