

November 2023

Activities for Families

November is Florida Family Engagement in Education Month!

When schools and families work together to support learning, everyone benefits.

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
			1 Visit your local library and read together for National Family Literacy Day .	2 Plan a day with no electronics. Consider books, board games, or puzzles.	3 Talk with your family about community service and help out at a local organization.	4 Review and talk to your child about today's homework.
5 Praise your child for their efforts rather than their abilities.	6 Join your school's PTO and SAC committees.	7 Take time to participate in an activity at your child's school.	8 Teach your child a new skill for. National Parents as Teachers Day	9 Listen to and discuss different types of music with your child.	10 Visit a local park or another attraction and talk about the experience.	11 Veteran's Day Talk to your child about why we honor those who courageously serve our country.
12 Invite your child to help plan meals, write the grocery list, and shop.	13 Take time to share kind efforts with each other as a family. World Kindness Day	14 Start a conversation with family members at the dinner table.	15 Explore career interests with your child for National Career Development Day	16 Contact your child's school to schedule a day to volunteer. National Parental Involvement Day	17 Sneak a note into your child's backpack or lunch box as a token of encouragement.	18 Start a family tradition to bond and keep the family connected.
19 Walk, stretch, or meditate with your child to prepare for the week ahead.	20 Talk with your child's teacher about his/her progress in school.	21 Host a pretend TV or radio talk show and take turns "interviewing" each other.	22 Commit to staying involved in your child's education throughout the year.	23 Thanksgiving Day Share around the table what you are grateful for.	24 As a family, learn more about recycling efforts and pledge to reduce, reuse, and recycle.	25 Pick a home improvement project and work together.
26 Flip through old family photos and tell stories about your family's history.	27 Read a book, article, magazine, or newspaper with your child.	28 Talk to your child about his or her favorite subject in school.	29 Browse the news and talk about current events with your child.	30 Explore resources to assist your child with homework and in the classroom.

